THE WEATHER.

For Eastern New York—Fair to-day and to-morrow; warmer to-day; fresh west winds.
For New Jersey—Fair and warmer to-day and to-morrow.
For Northern New England—Fair and warmer to-day and to-morrow.
For Southern New England—Fair and warmer to-day and to-morrow.
For Western New York—Fair and slightly warmer to-day; to-morrow probably fair and cooler.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—A disturbance of marked intensity has developed over the far southwest and it was central to-night over northern Arizona. It was attended by snow within the last twenty-four hours in the middle and northern Rocky Mountain region, rain and snow in the plateau States and rain in south California and the southern Rocky Mountain region.

Pressure was high and the weather was fair over practically all sections of the Rocky Mountains and over the north Pacific States. It became warmer in the region of the great lakes and the central valleys, but the temperature continued considerably below normal in the Eastern States and colder weather again overspread the plains States and the Rocky Mountains and plateau regions.

The outlook is for generally fair weather in the States east of the Mississippi River to-morrow and Monday, except that showers are probable in Indiana, the west portions of Kentucky, Tennessee and in the east Gulf States Monday. The temperature will rise, except in northern Michigan, where the weather will become colder. The temperature changes Monday will not be important, except that colder weather will overspread the region of the great lakes.

FIRST SNOW OF YEAR FALLS IN CATSKILLS
Biting Wind Brings Business to Clothiers.

While the earliest snow of recent years was falling in the Catskills yesterday city folk shivered in the streets or walked with more composure wrapped in overcoats. The combination of pay day and the first pronounced seasonal cold snap resulted in big business for the clothiers.

The Catskills were snowed two inches under and the snowfall was general throughout the region. Snow also fell in Sullivan county, according to reports from Middletown.

The sweeping wind brought out mendicants seeking to refund themselves for a cold winter. Three overcoats were stolen, one valued at $40 from an automobile parked in Fifth avenue in front of the Waldorf. Charged with taking this coat, George Gray, 25 years old, of 34 Bowers was locked up. A $47.50 coat was stolen from R. H. Macy & Co. just before closing time and the police arrested Edward Golden, 19 years old, of 18 East Ninety-ninth street, who, they said, was wearing it. Louis Cattaneo, manager of the Chevrolet Motor Car Company, lost a $60 overcoat from his automobile at Broadway and Thirty-fourth street and Edward Mooney, 27 years old, of 525 West Forty-ninth street, was arrested charged with the theft.

NOBEL PRIZE KNUT HAMSON'S
Norwegian Author Gets Award for Literature.

Announcement was made yesterday that the Nobel prize for literature in 1920 has been awarded to Knut Hamsun of Norway, author of "Hunger" and other stories of Scandinavian life.

Hamsun began his writing career as a free lance reporter, graduating into that category from the school room. He had worked also as a street car conductor, farmhand and lecturer. He visited the United States in the middle 1890s in Chicago. He is 60 years old.
